Georgia Southern wins St. Patrick Award at Savannah St. Patrick's Parade

Georgia Southern showed its True Green Spirit during the St. Patrick's Day Parade in Savannah on March 17. The University float, coordinated by the Office of Marketing and Communications and with the help of numerous departments on campus, won the St. Patrick Award, which is given to the parade entrant that most embodies the spirit of St. Patrick. In addition to advertising Georgia Southern to hundreds of thousands of people actually lining the streets, live coverage of the float on local TV generated an estimated publicity value of more than $10,000.
